

strengthening bioethics committees in lusophone african region

Workshop 1: Bioethics on Health Research 11-12 March 2019, Luanda, Angola

The National Bioethics Committee for Health of Mozambique and the Institute of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine of Portugal organized the Bioethics Course in Health Research, that took place from March 11 to 12, 2019 in the City of Luanda, Republic of Angola. This short-term training workshop had 17 participants and covered the following topics: (1) History of Bioethics; (2) Standards, (3) Protocol Review: and (4) Follow-up to Protocols.

Workshop 2: Bioethics on Health Research 14-15 March, 2019, Praia, Cabo Verde

The University of Cape Verde together with the National Bioethics Committee for Health of Mozambique and the Institute of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine of Portugal organized the Bioethics Course in Health Research, that took place from March 14 to 15, 2019 in the City of Praia, Republic of Cabo Verde. This short-term training workshop had 28 participants and covered the following topics: (1) History of Bioethics; (2) Standards, (3) Protocol Review: and (4) Follow-up to Protocols.

There were also two conferences opened to the public: Pre-Course Conference about “Ethics in Health Research” and a Post-Course Conference about “Human Reproductive Cloning and Genomic Edition”.

strengthening bioethics committees in lusophone african region

8th Annual ARESA Research Ethics Seminar, Cape Town, South Africa 4-5 April 2019

Professor Esperança Sevene, from Universidade Eduardo Mondlane, participated in the 8th Annual ARESA Research Ethics Seminar, 4-5 April 2019, Cape Town, and presented the work “Research Ethics Overview in Lusophone Countries in Africa” during a Plenary Session focused on Research Ethics Committees (REC) Challenges on the African Continent.

acknowledgements

This project is part of the EDCTP2 programme supported by the European Union.

Project Reference: CSA2016ERC-1423

contact: lusoafro.bioethics@ihmt.unl.pt